Today, my fabulous school had PD at _____ (1). I was so excited, because _____ (2) is one of my favorites from pop culture. When we got there, everyone was dressed in _____ (3) clothing. Making the day even better was the fact that we got to pick our own teams. The district leadership team handed out the rules and reviewed the agenda for the day then we scurried along. I couldn't figure out what amazing thing to try first. We worked together in our teams to _____ (4). When it was go time we all headed out in a terrible hurry. I was so pumped! I saw a/an _____ (5) I really liked and had been wanting to use in my classroom. I _____ (6) ran over to be the next at the station that had _____ (7) people in it. When I finally got to a challenge I had never done before I was _____ (8). In fact I was so nervous my two knees were knocking together. This was the _____ (9) learning experience I had ever done! We learned and played all morning. In about two hours I heard the rumbling and grumbling of our stomachs. Thank goodness it was time for lunch to begin! We ate _____ (10). The rest of the day went _____ (11). It was a(n) _____ (12) day of professional development. When my team got to the end, I was a little _____ (13), but I was proud of us all. We learned so much about _____ (14), _____ (15) and _____ (16). It was a fun day of learning with lots of cool Ed Tech Tools. My favorites were _____ (17), _____ (18) and _____ (19). Our team won some _____ (20) prizes. More importantly we all shared a one of a kind learning experience that we can incorporate into our classrooms without fear of failure or judgement. Destination PD really did change everything I thought I knew about PD!
